

Characters:

Jim Hawkins: The main protagonist and narrator. Jim's life changes dramatically when the pirate Billy Bones comes to stay at the inn and dies, leaving behind a treasure map

Mrs. Hawkins: Jim's mother, Mrs. Hawkins runs the Admiral Benbow Inn.

Mr. Hawkins: Jim's father who also works at the Inn.

"Captain" Billy Bones: A boarder at the Admiral Benbow Inn, Billy Bones is hiding from other pirates. He was the first mate of Captain Flint and has his secret treasure map.

Doctor Livesey: The town doctor and magistrate, Doctor Livesey joins Squire Trelawney and Jim in search of pirate treasure.

Black Dog: A pirate, Black Dog attacks Billy Bones at the inn.

Blandly: Former officer in the British Navy.

Pew: In Treasure Island, Pew is a blind beggar who is one of Billy Bones' former crewmates.

Mr. Dance: He is the landlord of the Admiral Benbow inn where Jim Hawkins and his mother live.

Squire Trelawney: A local wealthy hothead, Squire Trelawney finances a crew and a ship, the Hispaniola, to search for Capt. Flint's treasure.

Redruth: Squire Trelawney's servant.

Long John Silver: Flint's old seaman, Long John Silver signs on with Hispaniola crew as the cook, but he is really the leader of the mutineers. He has a parrot and wooden peg leg.

"Captain Flint": Long John Silver's parrot in Treasure Island is Captain Flint, named after the infamous pirate who buried the treasure

Ben Gunn: A marooned sailor, Ben Gunn has been alone on Treasure Island for three years before Jim finds him.

George Merry: He is one of the pirates who joins Long John Silver's mutiny on board the Hispaniola in an attempt to steal the treasure on Treasure Island.

Abraham Gray: He is a member of the pirate crew led by Long John Silver. He is a young sailor who is initially loyal to Captain Smollett and Dr. Livesey, but he is later forced to join Silver's mutiny in order to protect himself.

Captain Smollett: Hired captain of the Hispaniola

Captain Flint: A notorious pirate who buried a vast treasure on Treasure Island. He is also the former captain of the ship on which Billy Bones served as first mate.

Officer: The police officer who helps to capture the remaining pirates

Townspeople

Israel Hands, Matthew, Anthony, Tom Morgan, Willi, Job Anderson.

Pirates: (1) Squid, (2) Scurvy, (3) Red Cap, (4) Rad, (5) Rebel, (6) Smudge, (7) Turtle, (8) Screech